Ilwana Project

Dear All, this is a quick update from the Ilwana Project: The Lord God, whom we all pray to, has given us an early Christmas present. After four years of waiting, we have this day got an allotment letter from the government of Kenya for the Morokani School plot. From January 2012, we plan to start mobilizing building materials and to start actual construction work on this property. Thank you all for praying with us through this issue and for being patient with us when nothing seemed to have been happening. May the Lord bless you and Merry Christmas - Njagi.

Dear All, I can't say how excited I am to hear this! We have prayed and even fasted for many days for God to open the door which was tightly shut. I praise God that he has finally done it. Praise be to his name. Getting this allotment letter before the pending land reforms in January is a pure miracle. As I had already made some of you aware, I am well informed that it is going to become harder to get such a letter from January as the new land commission begins to take shape. Thank you all for praying and having faith in God that thou it tarries, one day it will come. Till the Ilwana people know Him - Peter Muguti.
