Wow Pamper Evening 24th March. Share your own beauty tips and enjoy good company

The Next YPC Concert - a story Almost 400 years ago a young man went for a job interview. The job - Master of the Chapel Music at St Mark's Cathedral in Venice. The man - Claudio Monteverdi. He was mostly known for his non religious music so, to try to impress his would be employers, he took with him a compilation of his few pieces of sacred music which he called his 'Vespers'. On 27th March at 7.30 pm in Wakefield Cathedral the Yorkshire Philharmonic Choir with the 18th Century Sinfonia and 7 young soloists will present a 400th Anniversary performance of 'Monteverdi's Vespers of 1610'. If you choose to come and share in this unique experience you will hear 'the richest single work of church music before Bach'. It will be a true 'Celebration of Early Music'. - Oh, by the way - he got the job! Tickets are £12 (£10 conces.) tel 01924 364862 (see posters at back of church for more details) or see Derek Howell, Dave Clark or Stephanie Woodhead.

Third Sunday Event At 6.30 pm on Sunday 21st March we will be having a family fun quiz in church. Come along and enjoy the fun, bring family and friends. Please can we have some help to serve drinks and tidy away.

Grapevine at Lincoln Will take place over the August bank holiday, leaflets are available in church and anyone interested in attending should contact Guy Bird.

The Children's Society Home Boxes A big thank you to all holders of home boxes for your generous contributions. The total amount of monies given this past year has realised the sum of £1,102.65 - this is wonderful and very much appreciated. Thank you, Cathy Cook and Monica Carlton.

Attlee Court Nursing Home Would like someone from church to go into the nursing home once a week to chat with the residents, if you are interested speak to Don.
